SP10 from October 2019 for Tripos 2020

FROM OCTOBER 2019

Candidates on this course will be of intermediate language level having successfully completed SP6 at IB or satisfied the Director of Section of their appropriate linguistic proficiency in Catalan. The intermediate language programme will consist of one weekly hour of grammar-based learning combined with a fortnightly hour which will entail reading and commentary on texts which are being studied on the cultural side of the paper.

Please see SP10's Moodle page. The enrolment password can be collected from the paper coordinator.

Assessment:
Assessment for the cultural side of the course will consist of a two-hour end of year examination. One question will be answered from two of the paper’s three sections.

The language element will be assessed by a twenty-minute oral held at the start of the examination period. Candidates will prepare a topic from one of the three sections on the paper, presenting an analysis of a relevant item of Catalan culture as a prelude to discussion. No question from the section chosen for the oral can be attempted on the written paper.
